

Javier Tovar Gil

Director of TGP since March 2026.

Attorney with more than 30 years of professional experience, specializing in private investment in infrastructure, including international arbitration related to this sector, capital markets, corporate governance, and private international law.

Throughout his career, he has served on the board of directors for several public and private companies. He is currently a board member of Talma Servicios Aeroportuarios, Aeropuertos del Perú, Dinnet, and Inmobiliaria Koricancha, and a member of the Investment Committee of the AC Capitales Infrastructure Fund.

He previously served as Chairman of the Board of the National Supervisory Commission for Companies and Securities (CONASEV), now the Superintendency of the Securities Market (SMV), and of Procapitales. He also chaired the privatization committees for the Peruvian telecommunications sector and led the citizen participation program responsible for conducting public offerings of State-owned shares in domestic and international capital markets.

In the academic field, he has been an undergraduate professor at the Universidad Peruana de Ciencias Aplicadas (UPC) and the University of Piura. He has also taught at the postgraduate level in the master's programs for International Economic Law and Capital Markets at the Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú (PUCP), the Master's in Regulation at UPC, and corporate governance programs at PAD-University of Piura and ESAN University. He is the author of several articles and books specialized on private international law.

Year of birth: 1957.