

Matthew Hartman

Director of TGP since December 2025.

Matthew is Managing Director & Global Head of Infrastructure and a member of the Executive Committee at EIG. He is based in the firm's Houston office and has been involved in the origination and execution of investments in the infrastructure and energy sectors globally. Matthew has served as a director on additional boards including Aramco Oil Pipeline Company, USA Compression Partners, Condor Energy, and Southcross Holdings.

Prior to joining EIG in 2014, Matthew was a Vice President in Citigroup's Global Energy Investment Banking group, where he led execution for energy midstream mergers and acquisition and capital markets transactions. Prior to that, Matthew also worked in Ernst & Young's tax practice, executing tax consulting and compliance engagements within a diverse set of industries.

Matthew holds a Bachelor of Business Administration and Bachelor of Professional Accountancy from Oklahoma Baptist University and a Master of Business Administration from the University of Texas.

Year of birth: 1981.