

Tomás Souto

Director of TGP since December 2025.

Tomás Souto is a Vice President at EIG and a member of the investment team, with primary responsibility for energy and infrastructure investments across Latin America. Based in the firm's Washington, D.C. office, he has been involved in several of EIG's key regional investments, including Gasoducto Transboliviano (GTB), Prumo Logística, GNL Quintero and Transportadora de Gas del Perú (TGP). Tomás currently serves on the boards of TGP, GNL Quintero and Condor Energy, and previously served on the Audit and Finance Committee of Prumo.

Prior to joining EIG, Tomás worked at Starboard Asset and held investment banking roles at Bradesco BBI and Brazil Plural, advising clients in the oil & gas and infrastructure sectors.

Tomás holds a Bachelor in Economics from Pontifícia Universidade Católica do Rio de Janeiro (PUC-RJ).

Year of birth: 1994.